ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT STAFF

JOHN J. CONBOY

Athletic Director

John J. (Jack) Conboy was named La Salle athletic director on January 3, 1969, succeeding James J. Henry, who retired January 1 after 35 years as Explorer A.D.

Conboy, 49, graduated from La Salle in 1950. He recently retired from the U.S. Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel after 20 years service. A veteran of three wars (WW II, Korea and Vietnam), Conboy served on the ROTC staff at La Salle from 1960-64.

Conboy was a member of St. Joseph's Prep's last city championship football team in 1939. After three years of World War II service in Europe, Conboy enrolled at Georgetown where he played football for two years before transferring to La Salle.

He was assistant football coach at St. Joseph's Prep from 1948 to 1950. He also coached Army football and basketball teams in Europe and Hawaii and organized a triathlon team at La Salle which produced three former members of the U.S. Army modern pentathlon team—Don Walheim, Bill Conroy and Gary McNulty.

Conboy, who holds an M.B.A. degree in Industrial Management from Temple University, resides in Drexel Hill, Pa. with his wife, Anne, and four children.

JOSEPH F. O'DONNELL

Assistant Athletic Director

Joseph F. O'Donnell was appointed assistant A.D. and coordinator of Hayman Hall, the college's $4.0 million physical recreation center in March of 1972.

A 1965 graduate of La Salle with a B.A. in economics, O'Donnell had taught social studies at Father Judge, his high school alma mater, from 1965-70. During the latter period, O'Donnell coached the school's soccer squad and was credited with developing 28 All-Catholic players, four of whom achieved All-Scholastic honors, and one All-American status.

In 1970-71 O'Donnell moved to a full-time position with the City of Philadelphia as recreation leader at the Jardel Center. He was a member of the Department of Recreation Soccer Committee, and also assisted Bill Wilkinson with the 1970 Explorer soccer team which posted the first winning season in the college's history.

O'Donnell, 30, and his wife, Marie, reside in northeast Philadelphia.

MEET THE EXPLORER COACHING STAFF

PAUL W. WESTHEAD
Head Basketball Coach

La Salle College basketball coach Paul W. Westhead, 35, has rapidly established himself as one of the better young strategists in the game. In 1974-75, he was named District 2 "Coach of the Year" by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Westhead has a career won-lost record of 81-53 (.604). His 1974-75 squad dropped its final game, an 87-83 overtime heartbreaker to Syracuse in NCAA first round action, but still enjoyed one of the most satisfying campaigns in La Salle's history with a 22-7 record and four major championships.

Westhead guided a predominately young club (only one senior) to 11 straight victories at one point and wins in 16 of its first 17 games. At mid-season the Explorers were seventh in the Associated Press national rankings. They won the Dayton Invitational, the Sugar Bowl Classic, Philadelphia's prestigious Big Five title, and the East Coast Conference Championship.

Westhead made his Explorer debut in 1970-71 by capturing and Villanova, and participating in the NIT.

Westhead began his career at Cheltenham High in 1964, gradually building a winning tradition, which culminated in the suburban Philadelphia school's first appearance ever in the P.I.A.A. state finals in 1968.

From 1968 to 1970, Westhead served as assistant athletic freshmen to an unparalleled 21-2 season.

The Explorer coach added some additional credits during the summer of 1972 when he coached the Santurce team of the Puerto Rican "Superior" league to a first place regular season finish. In the following summer, Westhead visited Bahia, Brazil to stage a court clinic as part of the state department's "Partners of the Americas" exchange program.

A 1961 graduate of St. Joseph's College, Westhead received a master's degree from Villanova University in 1963, and had done some Ph.D. work at Temple University. He had also served on the English department faculties at Cheltenham High, St. Joseph's College, and La Salle College.

Westhead, his wife Cassie, and four children reside in Drexel Hill, Pa.

JOSEPH C. O'CONNOR
Assistant Coach

Joseph C. O'Connor, personable Explorer assistant coach, is primarily involved with scouting opponents and recruiting the stars of tomorrow.

As coach of the La Salle frosh from 1970 to 1972, Joe's squads compiled a 34-11 mark, highlighted by his '71-72 yearlings winning 20 of 23 contests.

The 33 year-old mentor with the knowledgeable basketball mind, is no stranger to this kind of success. As coach of South Jersey's Bishop Eustace

Prep from 1966-70, O'Connor's amazing coaching log read 78-17, including the New Jersey State Championship in 1969.

O'Connor, a 1963 graduate of St. Joseph's College with a bachelor's degree in history, resides with his wife Kathy, in Westbrook Park, Pa.

BILL MICHUDA

Assistant Coach

Bill was added to the Explorer staff in June, 1975 after assisting Paul Westhead in an unofficial capacity for three years.

The 27 year old native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin also played for Westhead at La Salle and was a member of La Salle's memorable 23-1 squad in 1968-69.

Michuda graduated from La Salle in 1971 with a B.A. in History Education and since received an M.A. in Counseling Psychology at Villanova University in 1973.

Michuda and his wife Elizabeth reside in Roxborough, Pa.

DAVID A. (LEFTY) ERVIN

Assistant Coach

David "Lefty" Ervin is in his eighth season as an assistant basketball coach, and also distinguishes himself as an assistant baseball boss at La Salle.

While a student at the college, Lefty was a two-sport standout and co-captain of the Explorer baseball and basketball teams in his senior year. In 1968 he was honored with the Joseph Schmitz Jr. Award as the senior who best exemplified the high traditions of La Salle College in loyalty, sportsmanship and courage.

A starter on the basketball varsity as a sophomore, Ervin spent most of the next two years as the Explorers' sixth man and gained a reputation as one of the outstanding substitutes in the nation. He scored a total of 756 points for his career.

Lefty played baseball and basketball at Abington High before graduating in 1963. In addition to his duties at La Salle, he serves on the faculty of Archbishop Ryan High.

Ervin, 29, his wife, Karen, and son, Joshua, reside in Cinnaminson, N.J.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT CHARLIE WISE

"Pressuring Charlie Wise on a basketball floor is like challenging Downhill Racer on a pair of bedslats, like following a maserati in a go-cart, like chasing a rabbit through a brush fire. Charlie grabs a ball and dribbles to daylight, scattering the enemy, hitting the open man, and converting pressure into points. On defense, Charlie Wise does not guard an opponent, he surrounds him. One night with Charlie and a guy comes away figuring the kid has at least four hands." —Tom Cushman, Philadelphia Daily News.

"There are no quicker guards than Charlie in the Big Five, and probably not many in the country. Charlie Wise is so quick he could probably be voted pickpocket of the year and steal the trophy before anyone noticed. His spectacular play, especially late in the season, almost seemed routine." — Craig Evans, Camden Courier Post

"Charlie Wise's outside shooting, gliding speed on defensive breakaways, and his ability to penetrate make him perhaps the most feared guard we oppose." — Chuck Daly, head basketball coach, University of Pennsylvania

"Charlie obliterates pressure defenses. We know from experience." Tom Davis, head basketball coach, Lafayette College.

"Charlie blew around our defensive guards as though they were standing still." — Jim Richards, head basketball coach, Western Kentucky.

"Charlie is a very creative player who is probably the best all-around athlete in the Big Five." Don Casey, head basketball coach, Temple University.

"I think that Charlie Wise has to be one of the most poised and one of the quickest guards in college basketball today." — Frank Layden, head basketball coach, Niagara University.

"It is not far-fetched to compare Wise with pro star Nate Archibald when the latter was a collegian. Charlie has the same lightening quickness that shoots him downcourt before the defense can react to his sudden movements." — Harry Hoffman, Atlantic City Press.

"Charlie is one player who is capable of taking control of a game either offensively or defensively. He has developed into one of the finest guards in the East, if not the country." Harry Booth, head basketball coach, St. Joseph College.

Charles E. Wise
 Senior 21 6-0 155 Guard
 Cape May, New Jersey

Charlie is one of the premier guards in the country. He sabotages enemy offenses with lightening-quick thievery and brings entire defenses to their knees with ball-handling wizardry.

An electrifying performer who thrives on pressure, "Sweet Charlie" is La Salle's structural leader. He fuels the Explorer running game and last year dealt a team-high 128 assists.

The mercurial speedster, always a defensive gadfly, improved his shooting touch last year and became a long range scoring threat. His outside scoring added another dimension to a potent Explorer offense and helped him reap All East, All Big Five, and All ECC honors. He was also named to both holiday tournament all star teams.

Charlie has improved his scoring average every year and last season averaged 13.1 ppg. He scored a career high 25 points against Texas Tech and established a new La Salle single game record with 13 assists against Memphis State. He also led the Big Five in free throw accuracy (85.4%).

A former star quarterback at Lower Cape May Regional High, Charlie was an All South Jersey sensation (coach George Holden).

Michael F. Arizin
Junior 21 6'5" 195 Forward
Springfield, Pa.

Mike, the son of former Villanova and NBA legend Paul Arizin, transferred to La Salle from William and Mary in 1974, after two years of stardom in the Southern Conference.

A deadly shooter with great offensive instincts and a tenacious battler under the boards Mike should be a tremendous addition to the Explorer front-court. He is a very intelligent player who "reads" and attacks defenses with uncanny perception.

Mike led William and Mary in scoring and rebounding as a freshman (17.2 ppg., 7.3 rpg.) and a sophomore (17.4 ppg., 7.8 rpg.). He was twice W & M's leading free throw shooter (83.2% as a soph, 82.1 as a frosh). He scored a career high 35 points against Richmond in '73-74 and his high rebounding total was 15 against the Citadel.

Mike was selected to the Southern Conference All Freshman team, the All Conference team, the Southern Conference All Tournament team, and as a freshman was the MVP of the Scranton Christmas tournament.

Mike is a former scholastic All American at Cardinal O'Hara High where he played under Jim Purcell and Bob Palestini.

Barry D. Brodzinski
Junior 20 6'0" 170 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

Barry saw action in 24 contests last year and exhibited a confident, stable influence on the court. His best performance came at Memphis State when he calmly converted seven clutch free throws to preserve La Salle's victory.

Barry's steady ball-handling and gifted shooting touch should provide a valuable contribution to the Explorer cause. He gained helpful experience two years ago the Explorer sub-varsity as he averaged 18.6 ppg. and recorded a team-high 34 assists.

Barry hails from North Catholic High (coach Tony Costantini). He led the Philadelphia Catholic League in scoring as a senior and also established a new career scoring record at North (2053 points).

Daryle L. Charles
Sophomore 19 6'0" 160 Guard
Jersey City, N.J.

Daryle possesses a wealth of natural talent and should be a prominent back-court reserve this season. He dedicates himself to hard labor on the court and is an intense competitor.

Daryle is competent in every phase of the game and has a flair for the spectacular. During limited action in eighteen games last season he scored a career high 8 points vs. West Chester and pulled down 3 rebounds against Canisius.

In a glittering scholastic career Daryle led St. Anthony's High (coach Bob Hurley) to a 30-0 record and a New Jersey Parochial C state championship. He was also the MVP in the 1974 Bridgeport Connecticut All Star contest in which New Jersey upended New York City.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1974-75	18	7	5	6	19

Glenn Collier
Senior 21 6'2" 150 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

Glenn emerged as an offensive spark last year and improved his reputation as one of the toughest backcourt defenders around.

His cat-like quickness and sharp passing eye make Glenn a valuable catalyst for the Explorer running game. A dangerous shooter, Glenn also penetrates well and will be counted on to supply more scoring this year.

Last season Glenn scored at a 10.2 ppg. clip and his 119 assists were second best on the team. His career high of 23 points came against Texas Tech.

Defense is Glenn's forte. He usually draws the opponents' top guard and affords him blanket coverage. His keen knack for anticipation and quick reactions resulted in many steals and fast break layups.

As a freshman, Glenn led the sub varsity scorers with a 15.9 ppg. average. Previously, he enjoyed an outstanding scholastic career at West Catholic High, where he earned All Catholic honors under coach Bill Hoy.

1973-74	28	94	16	60	204
1974-75	29	126	43	77	295

John J. Connors
Senior 22 6'3" 190 Forward
Drexel Hill, Pa.

John is a heady reserve who is capable of filling in well both in the backcourt and frontcourt. He was a member of La Salle's best ever '71-72 freshman squad (20-3) and has performed well for the Explorer sub-varsity, averaging 12.1 ppg. on the '72-73 squad.

John has earned three letters on the Explorer varsity golf team, has worked full time for a business firm as part of La Salle's cooperative education program, is active in La Salle's Beta Alpha Honors tutoring program and has been nominated for a Rhodes Scholarship.

John played his scholastic basketball at Cardinal O'Hara High (coach Jim Purcell) and his dad, Mr. Jack Connors, is an assistant professor of sociology and also the golf coach at the college.

Varick F. Cutler
Senior 22 6'8" 200 Forward
North Tonawanda, N.Y.

Varick may emerge as a significant frontcourt figure for the Explorers this year. He is a rugged rebounder and a very fine outside shot.

In limited action last year, Varick established a new career high of 6 points and tied his career rebounding high of 4 (vs. Biscayne) against West Chester.

Varick transferred to La Salle from Maryland in 1972. He averaged 15.2 ppg. and 8.4 rpg. for an outstanding Terp freshman squad in 1971-72.

A knee operation the following year limited his mobility somewhat and he played himself back into shape on the '73-74 Explorer sub-varsity squad, leading the club in scoring (22.3) and rebounding (9.7).

The former high school All American had a brilliant career at North Tonawanda High (coach Ted More).

THE ATHLETE

The young man who accepts the exciting challenge of representing La Salle College on basketball courts throughout the nation will be one who recognizes that he is supplementing his classroom participation with athletic participation.

He will learn to discipline himself toward achieving a goal, to work in close association with other men, and to acquire judgment and responsibility. As such a student athlete, he will be, above all, a gentleman.

Robert Harvey
Freshman 18 6'8" 215 Forward
Philadelphia, Pa.

Robert is a well-disciplined front-court prospect with enormous potential. He is a determined battler and could make an early contribution.

As a junior, Robert helped lead Abington High School (coach Jim Wilkin-son) to the PIAA State championship and as a senior led his club to the finals. He scored exactly 1000 points in his three year scholastic career and as a senior led Abington in field goal accu- racy (53%). He also established new records for most rebounds in a game (24), season (442), and career (1101). He was a first team all state selection and was the MVP in the Pennsylvania vs. New Jersey Roundball all star classic.

Gregg D. Metzinger
Sophomore 19 6'5" 200 Forward
Barrington, N.J.

Gregg's exceptional shooting ability should become more visible this year with increased playing time. He saw limited action in a reserve role a year ago and registered personal highs of 9 points vs. West Chester and 3 rebounds vs. Canisius.

Gregg is an emotional player who is capable of triggering a rally off the bench. He is a fluid forward with sur- prising strength and can hold his own in the backboard wars.

A former All South Jersey forward at Paul VI in Haddon Town- ship, N.J., Gregg evinced a knack for clutch play in the New Jersey Parochial State Tournament by pouring in 44 points against the Christian Brothers' Academy.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1974-75	20	12	4	18	28

Joseph A. Mihalich
Sophomore 19 6'0" 165 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

Joe is an inspirational player who consistently gives 110% effort on the court. Although he received little expo- sure last year, Joe's contribution should increase as he gains maturity.

Joe was an All Catholic star at La Salle High under Mike Osborne's tutel- age. His father, Dr. Joseph Mihalich, is a Philosophy professor at La Salle Col- lege and is also chairman of the Athletic committee.

A hounding defender with relentless pursuit, Joe is competent in every phase of the game at both ends of the court. He is a know- ledgable player and served as a coach in a Philadelphia summer league in 1975.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1974-75	8	1	3	1	1

Anthony C. Plakis
Freshman 19 6'4" 195 Guard
Oaklyn, N.J.

After a brilliant high school career Tony steps into the college ranks with a bright future. A hard-nosed plugger with a devastating outside shot, Tony is equally adept at both inside and outside scoring.

The former scholastic All Ameircan became the first player in Bishop Eustace High School (coach Pete Johnson) history to score more than 1000 points in a career, and last year also led Eustace in rebounding. He was first team All South Jersey and helped Eustace to two New Jersey state championships.

Tony has a cool hand under pressure and is an exceptional ball-handler. His versatility accents his value and should facilitate the transition to the collegiate game.

Donn K. Wilber
Junior 20 6'11" 200 Center
Radnor, Pa.

Donn was the Explorers' center last year and responded with some sterling performances which gave indication that with a bit more consistency, he may become a dangerous frontcourt presence to be reckoned with.

Possessor of a soft, accurate jump shot, Donn led the Explorers in field goal accuracy (55.1%) while scoring at a rate of 6.2 ppg. He was the Explorer's fourth leading rebounder (5.1 rpg.)

Donn, the tallest player on the Explorer team, is a scrappy hustler and a hard worker on the court. He is a late blooming talent and has already improved a great deal since his Upper Merion High days under coach Al Cornish.

Donn notched his career high of 26 points against Delaware and pulled down a personal best 10 rebounds against Canisius and Duquesne.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points

1974-75	29	82	16	146	180

James D. Wolkiewicz
Sophomore 19 6'6" 185 Forward
Philadelphia, Pa.

Jim was a valuable contributor to the Explorers' success last year. The poised forward displayed a valuable flair for scoring important baskets and snaring essential rebounds. He started his rookie campaign as a top substitute but was elevated to a starting berth in the team's ninth game and shared that role the rest of the way. A freak dormitory mishap which resulted in a broken jaw ended his season just prior to the NCAA tournament.

Jim, recorded career highs of 12 points vs. Rutgers and 15 rebounds in an ECC tournament win against Bucknell. His season point average was 4.8 and he finished as the Explorers' second leading rebounder with a 6.9 average.

Jim is a former Philadelphia Catholic League standout. He averaged 16.0 ppg. and 18.0 rpg. in his senior year at North Catholic High (coach Tony Costantino).

EXPLORER

1975-76 PROSPECTS

On the heels of one of the most successful court campaigns in La Salle history, coach Paul Westhead, the 1974-75 District II Coach of the Year, will have ten lettermen and some exciting new faces to meet this year's challenge. The Explorers should be an interesting blend of vintage backcourt experience and blossoming frontcourt talent.

The departure of frontcourt stalwarts Joe Bryant and Bill Taylor from last year's 22-7 NCAA tournament squad will occasion a shift of strength to the backcourt. Fortunately, the Explorers are blessed with one of the top guard tandems in the country.

6'0" guard Charlie Wise is a bright star approaching supernova status. He is a multi-dimensional player whose mere presence disrupts opponent strategies. He can shoot, run, handle flawlessly, and direct the offense. His backcourt mate, 6'2" Glenn Collier, one of the most under-rated players in the East, may finally be rewarded with the attention which his consistent play merits. Both are superlative defensive players, and they complement one another superbly.

The backcourt picture is enhanced by the presence of 6'0" sophomore Daryle Charles, a superior talent who only needs playing time to hone his blue chip skills. 6'0" junior Barry Brodzinski, with his deft outside touch, and 6'0" soph Joe Mihalich, a scrappy hustler, also provide handy depth. Additional help may come from a 6'4" package of exciting potential named Tony Plakis. The sharp-shooting freshman who rewrote his high school's scoring records does everything enthusiastically and well.

Although the backcourt may be the Explorer's strength this year, the frontcourt is well-stocked with capable hands. 6'5" Mike Arizin, a transfer from William and Mary with two years of eligibility, should generate plenty of offensive spark with his explosive outside marksmanship and his effective inside guile. 6'6" sophomore Jim Wolkiewicz impressed everyone with his poise, rebounding, and unselfish play a year ago and just a bit more offensive inclination would increase the front line's scoring potency and be a welcome addition. The continued progression of 6'11" junior Donn Wilber may well be the cornerstone for a successful season. He has already improved dramatically since his freshman days and more self-confidence might be the catalyst for a productive campaign in the post.

Again waiting in the wings is 6'8" senior Varick Cutler, who may finally land a major supporting role. The 6'8" power forward adds rebounding strength and is an outside shooting threat. 6'6" sophomore streak shooter Greg Metzinger will also be called upon to perk up the offense and light rallies off the bench. 6'8" freshman Robert Harvey will answer bullpen calls with increasing frequency in proportion to his maturation, and 6'5" senior John Connors will again provide swingman depth.

"Our season will depend on how well our frontcourt absorbs the loss of Joe Bryant," says Westhead. "In Mike Arizin, Donn Wilber, and Jim Wolkiewicz we have talent, but it is a new combination which might take time to develop. Our backcourt is solid with Charlie Wise and Glenn Collier. I think we might be a surprise team this year."

Another grueling schedule will pose a burden to the rebuilding Explorers, as they defend their Big Five and ECC titles, and the front line will have to respond with consistent play in order to parlay the season into another success story.

1. UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

Friday, November 28, 1975, 9:15 P.M. at the Palestra, Phila., Pa.

SERIES RECORD:
La Salle 6, Delaware 0

OUTLOOK: The Blue Hens return four starters but may feature an entirely new look with the addition of freshman scoring leader Ed Dunning (22.7 ppg.), transfers Bob Cook (6'6") and Steve Fischer (5'10"), and Brian Downie (6'7"), who red-shirted last year. Those five will press incumbents Steve Schlacter (6'9", 10.2 ppg., 7.8 rpg.), Dennis Purcell (6'4"), Paul Gibson (6'2"), and Gerry Gallagher (6'6", 9.8 ppg., 5.1 rpg.). Inconsistency and rebounding woes must be cured if the Hens are to hurdle the .500 plateau.

Series Record
La Salle 8, Widener 3 (with PMC)

OUTLOOK: Four returning starters, including last year's three top scorers and rebounders, return to give coach Alan Rowe a solid nucleus in '75-76. 6'5" sophomore Dennis James, 6'6" senior Dennis Woodbury (12.4 ppg., 9.5 rpg.), and 6'1" guard James Coyle (12.9 ppg.) provide the scoring punch. 6'6" senior Tom Mann and 6'7" Kevin Jones, 6'5" Fitzpatrick, 6'1" Steve Jones and 6'1" Mike Donahue will compete for playing time. A better road performance might inspire another successful campaign.

3. UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

Wednesday, December 3, 1975, 7:30 P.M. at the Memorial
Tuscaloosa, Alabama

OUTLOOK: 6'10" All American center Leon Douglas (20.7 ppg., 13.1 rpg.) and a bumper crop of guards should be the Crimson Tide strengths this year. Despite the loss of three-time All SEC guard Charles Cleveland, coach C. M. Newton's backcourt stable includes converted 6'4" forward T. R. Dunn (12.3 ppg., 6.5 rpg.), 6'3" soph Anthony Murray (92 assists), 6'1" soph Leroy Russell, and blue chip freshmen Paul Naves (6'3") and Tommy Bonds (6'3"). 6'8" Rickey Brown is the only forward with much experience, and there will be hot contention among blue chip talent for the frontcourt spots. Another strong club.

OUTLOOK: A rash of injuries prevented this club from showing its true colors a year ago, but the five starters and four top reserves are back to make amends. 6'9" John Irving, who led the country in rebounding last season (15.4), 6'2" Bernard Tomlin (19.8 ppg.), 6'6" Richie Laurel (13.2 ppg.), 6'8" Pat Kammerer, and 6'2" Ken Rood should all retain their starting berths. Reserve guards Arnold Coleman (6'0") and Gary Melillo (6'2") and frontcourt subs Bob Rush (6'5") and John Macukas (6'4") provide experienced depth. In the running for ECC laurels.

OUTLOOK: A two year NCAA suspension and the loss of three quality starters provide a formidable challenge for the Golden Griffins. 6'6" leaper Ken Kee (11.2 ppg., 4.8 rpg.) returns as the key frontcourt figure. Converted 6'6" guard Craig Prosser should nail down one forward spot while jayvee grads John Sommers (6'2") and Mark Spitler (6'3") will bid for another. 6'5" Tim Stokes will again direct the offense and will be paired with 6'2" Mike Walton or 6'3" Bill Leonard. ### UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Possible Jay Hawk opponent.

OUTLOOK: The Jayhawks' nucleus consists of three juniors and four sophomores and several players will have to come of age if Kansas is to successfully defend its Big 8 title. 6'8" Norman Cook (10.3 ppg., 8.2 rpg.), 6'9" Donnie Van Moore (7.1 ppg., 5.7 rpg.), and 6'2" Clint Johnson (7.1 ppg.) were starters down the stretch last year. Expected to contribute heavily are 6'0" Milt Gibson and 6'10" soph Ken Koenigs, both projected starters, 6'4" junior Chris Barnhouse, 6'5" redshirt Reuben Shelton, 7'1" freshman Paul Mokeski, and 6'5" freshman Brad Sanders. OUTLOOK: Despite the return of nine lettermen and seven of the top nine scorers, the Eli will be hard pressed to see the brighter side of .500. 6'7" senior Rollin Chippery, (13.7 ppg., 7.8 rpg.) Yale's only consistent player last year, will be joined in the front-court by 6'6" Brad Berger and 6'4" Steve Switchenko (11.3 ppg.), 6'1" Jim McGuire (9.9 ppg.), 6'3" Gary Newman, 6'2" Wayne Heidenreich, and 6'0" Robin Michael are the backcourt candidates and will have to supply more firepower if the Eli hope to get on the winning track. #### SERIES RECORD

La Salle 14, Syracuse 12

OUTLOOK: Filling the void left by graduated stars Rudy Hackett and Jim Lee appears to be Roy Danforth's only major chore as ten lettermen return from last year's NCAA quarterfinalist. 6'5" Chris Sease (12.1 ppg.), 6'9" Earnie Seibert (4.5 ppg., 4.7 rpg.), and 5'10" Jim Williams (7.6 ppg.) are all back to reclaim their starting berths. 6'2" Ross Kindel, 6'4" Kevin King, and 6'9" Bob Parker are key non-starters still on hand. 6'6" Dale Shackelford, 6'6" Bill Keys, and 6'5" Reggie Powell are freshmen who may help. Another tourney trip is possible.

SERIES RECORD La Salle 9, American 3

OUTLOOK: Although the Eagles lose top scorer and rebounder Wilbur Thomas, ten lettermen are back, led by 6'5" forward and number two scorer Calvin Brown (16.4 ppg., 6.3 rpg.). 6'6" Ricky Hunt (4.9 ppg.) may shift to forward from his center post if either 6'9" Howie Lassofo or 6'10" freshman Tom Pfozter can nail down the spot. 6'5" Ray Voelkel, 6'7" Tay Waltenbaugh, and 6'5" Cleo Wright are also frontcourt contenders. The backcourt positions are up for grabs. 6'2" Jim Neurohr (8.3 ppg.) 5'10" Donald Kelly, 6'0" Brad Greenburg (8.3 ppg.), 6'3" Carroll Holmes, and 6'2" Herb Jamieson are all possibilities. If the front court shapes up, the Eagles will be ECC contenders.

SERIES RECORD La Salle 13, Villanova 13

OUTLOOK: All of the key figures are back to give the Wildcats their best shot at a winner in three years. 6'8" Larry Herron (17.8 ppg., 6.5 rpg.) and 6'6" brother Keith Herron (17.9 ppg., 5.1 rpg.) highlight a talent laden frontcourt which also includes 6'7" defensive ace John Olive, 6'6" super-sub Reggie Robinson, 6'4" standby Mike Stack, and 6'10" newcomer Ron Cowan. 6'0" Big Five assist leader Joe Rogers will again direct the attack aided by 6'4" Whitey Rigsby. 5'10" Tom Melchionni, and 6'4" frosh Mario Morales. 'Cats should end three years of frustration.

Wednesday, February 18, 1976, 8:00 P.M., at the Niagara University Student Center, Niagara University, N.Y.

SERIES RECORD La Salle 16, Niagara 13

OUTLOOK: The Purple Eagles return all five starters, some experienced reserves, and appear ready to come of age. 6'4" sharp-shooting Andy Walker (19.8 ppg., 8.8 rpg.), 6'8" Bruce Watson (11.9 ppg., 9.3 rpg.), 6'5" Ollie Harper (11.5 ppg., 6.8 rpg.), 6'8" Vern Allen (10.0 ppg., 8.2 rpg.), and 6'1" playmaker Chico Singleton (7.5 ppg.) comprise a talented starting five. 6'9" redshirt Mike Hanley returns after an injury to add bulk and inside scoring and 6'4" reserve swingman Roy Beekman (9.6 ppg.) will also lend a helping hand. Should be a good year for Frank Layden's club.

Past Records

6-7 All-American Ken Durrett (no. 33) lefthands two of his 45 points which sparked La Salle's 91-76 rout of Western Kentucky and set new Palestra and Explorers' standards during the 1970-71 campaign. Durrett, MAC and Big Five MVP, finished his career with 1679 points, second highest total in La Salle history. Ken's career per-game average of 23.6 is the school's best ever.

THE EXPLORERS' 1974-75 SEASON IN REVIEW

La Salle College's 1974-75 Explorers dropped their final game, an 87-83 overtime heartbreaker to Syracuse in NCAA first round action, but still enjoyed one of the most satisfying campaigns in their colorful court history with a 22-7 record and four major championships.

Coach Paul Westhead's predominately young club, short in depth but long in desire, won 11 straight games at one time and 16 of their first 17 to rise as high as seventh in the Associated Press rankings. They won the Dayton Invitational, the Sugar Bowl Classic, Philadelphia's prestigious Big Five title and the East Coast Conference Championship.

Eight of La Salle's victims later participated in either the NCAA or NIT Tournaments. The Explorers beat Southeastern Conference co-champion Alabama, Ivy League winner Pennsylvania, Southern Conference titlist Furman, Atlantic Coast Conference contender Clemson, Southwest Conference runnerup Texas Tech and such highly-regarded independents as Holy Cross, Memphis State, Lafayette, Duquesne, and Niagara.

As a team, La Salle finished with highest field goal (49.2%) and free throw (72.7%) shooting percentages in history. Only five La Salle teams won more games than the 1974-75 Explorers, and only one of them, the great 23-1 club of 1968-69, have done better in the twenty years since Tom Gola led La Salle to the NCAA crown in 1954 and national runnerup honors the following season.

"The 1974-75 season was certainly a positive experience for us," said Westhead. "We achieved just about everything we aspired to do. We did well on the road, winning two holiday tournaments, then we came home to go unbeaten in the Big Five, win our conference, and make the NCAA's."

The Explorers got outstanding season-long performances from 6-10 junior forward Joe Bryant, an Associated Press honorable mention All America from Philadelphia; 6-5 forward and captain Billy Taylor; the MVP of the Sugar Bowl from Tuckeegee, Ala.; and the dazzling backcourt combination of 6-0 Charlie Wise, of Cape May, N.J., and 6-2 Glenn Collier, of Philadelphia.

Bryant a first round NBA hardship draft pick, led the Explorers in scoring (21.8), rebounding (11.4) and field goal shooting (51.7%), and absolutely dominated the action on numerous occasions. He scored a career total of 1,118 points, something that only four others in history have done in their first two years—Gola, Ken Durrett, Hubie Marshall, and Bobby Fields.

"JB" hit double figures in 53 of his 55 varsity games and surpassed 20 points 29 times. His seasonal high was 34 points at Memphis State. Bryant's career highs were 37 points in 1973-74 against Rider and 19 rebounds last year against Temple. He made his first 11 shots in the first American U. game and finished 15 for 18 from the field.

Taylor, the only senior on the team, finished his spectacularly-consistent career in fourth place among the college's all-time scorers with 1,554 points. He hit double figures in 80 of 82 varsity games, including 35 games in excess of 20 points.

Taylor finished as the team's second leading scorer with 19.3 ppg. He saved his best output of the year (32 points) for the ECC Championship game against Lafayette although his career high of 39 came against American U. in 1973-74. Noted for his picturesque jump shot, Taylor won a host of individual honors including slots on the Dayton Invitational All-Tourney Team and slots on the Big Five and East Coast Conference All-Star squads two years in a row.

Wise, one of the quickest guards around, averaged 13.1 ppg, and finished as one of the nation's best free throw shooters (85.4%). At one point during the season he converted 25 in a row. He led the Explorers in assists (high of 13 at Memphis State, broke single game La Salle record) and his a career high of 25 points against Texas Tech. He made both Holiday Tourney All-Star teams last year.

Collier was, perhaps, the most under-rated player in the East. Most of the time he was La Salle's "stopper," guarding the top opposing scorer and usually doing it well. He averaged 10.2 ppg. with a career of 23 against Clemson, a performance that earned him a spot on the Dayton Invitational team.

Other significant performances this year came from Jim Wolkiewicz, a 6-6 freshman forward from Philadelphia; Donn Wilber, a 6-10 sophomore center from Radnor, Pa., and Barry Brodzinski, a 6-0 guard from Philadelphia.

Wolkiewicz, who finally earned a starting position late in the season, played key defensive and rebounding roles in victories over Penn and Bucknell. La Salle's second-leading rebounder, he fractured his jaw in a freak dormitory accident two days before the NCAA game with Syracuse and his loss was severely felt against the Orangemen. Jim's career highs were 12 points against Rutgers and 15 rebounds against Bucknell.

Wilber, a much-improved player, started much of the season and sparkled in back-to-back games when he scored 18 points in the second half at Syracuse and then hit 12 of 16 from the field for a career high of 26 at Drexel. Brodzinski's best performance came at Memphis State when he calmly converted seven clutch free throws to preserve La Salle's lead.

EXPLORER NOTES

Other members of the Explorers were Gregg Metzinger, a 6-5 freshman from Barrington, N.J., who appeared in 20 games and scored a high of nine points against West Chester; Varick Cutler, a 6-8 junior from North Tonawanda, N.Y., who transferred from the University of Maryland and played in 14 games, saw more key action toward the end of the season; Daryle Charles, a 6-0 freshman from Jersey City, N.J.; John Connors, a 6-3 junior from Drexel Hill, Pa., and Joe Mihalich, a 6-0 freshman from Philadelphia.

EAST COST CONFERENCE HISTORY

The East Coast Conference, formerly the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference, began operation in July of 1974. There is East and West division competition in all team sports with conference champions moving on to NCAA competition.

East division members include American, Drexel, Hofstra, LaSalle, St. Joseph's, and Temple. The West will have Bucknell, Delaware, Lafayette, Lehigh, Rider, and West Chester.

The conference will conduct competition in 11 sports — soccer, cross country, basketball, swimming, wrestling, indoor track, baseball, golf, tennis, track, and lacrosse. Each conference member must field teams in at least seven varsity sports.

Conference athletic directors feel the new conference will function more effectively from the financial, administrative, and organizational standpoint than it was able to do under the umbrella of the 38 school Middle Atlantic Collegiate Athletic Conference.

All twelve schools are members of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, competing for the most part in Division One competition.

THE LA SALLE STORY

Brother Daniel Burke,
F.S.C., Ph.D.
President, La Salle College

La Salle College, now in its 112th year of service to higher education and the Philadelphia Community, was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle.

In 1929, having outgrown three previous Philadelphia locations, the campus was moved to its present site at 20th and Olney Avenue in the East Germantown section of the city.

Since 1945, La Salle has experienced dramatic growth. Before the closing days of the war, the college had an enrollment of less than 500 attending classes in plant facilities valued at only $1.5 million. Today, 6300 day and evening division students attend classes on La Salle's 40-acre campus, appraised at $30 million.

Olney Hall, a $4.4 million, 100,000-square-foot complex opened in September, 1971, contains 39 classrooms, 15 student seminar and study rooms, and 107 faculty offices as well as such special-purpose areas as a planetarium, an amphitheatre, language laboratories and audio-visual rooms. It houses the liberal arts area departments of English, Education, History, Languages, Political Science and Sociology.

Hayman Hall, the college's new $4 million physical recreation center which opened this past September, contains the Joseph Kirk Memorial Natatorium with separate swimming and diving facilities, an underwater observation deck, and seats for 1700 spectators. Three regulation-size basketball courts, a one-twelfth mile indoor suspended track, and areas for fencing, wrestling, squash, handball, gymnastics and general exercise are the other features of the complex.

Ten modern residence halls accommodate 800 out-of-town students. A $2 million, three-story College Union Building, completed in 1959, includes a Little Theatre as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ball-room and other student facilities.

The $2.5 million Holroyd Science Center, opened in 1960, houses lecture rooms and laboratories for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics and Psychology. The David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library, built in 1952, contains 175,000 volumes and periodical files for some 700 journals, and a library annex in the former Wister Hall gymnasium opened last year, increasing library space by 50%.

The Army ROTC program, initiated in 1950, is available to freshmen, who may apply for ROTC scholarships for advance studies.

La Salle's day and evening divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration. The 350-member faculty is composed of Christian Brothers, priests and lay professors. The college has been co-educational in the evening division since February, 1967 and in its day school since September, 1970.

Students at La Salle come from some 200 public and private schools in 21 States, most of them located in the northeastern part of the United States. Fourteen countries are also represented in the student body. Over 75 per cent of them plan graduate work and about 1,000 degrees are conferred annually on day and evening division seniors. La Salle's alumni totals 16,000 with more than 80 per cent of them still living and working in the tri-state area of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
